at Grove and Westchester avenues has aroused the police and Coroner, who were looking for a woman who, they think, is guilty of murder.

Mrs. David Johnson, who kept a board-ing-house at the corner of Grove and Westchester avenues, recently moved away, leaving the house vacant.

On the list of May Mrs. Morrison took the house and now occupies it. She ing a tidy woman, considered it a nuisance. Yesterday she ordered Nicolo Carlucci, an Italian scavenger, to remove the ash heap.

Carlucci found the body of a new born infant in the heap, He notified Mrs. Morrison of this, but, so he says, he was told to say nothing about it. Mrs. Morrison, so Carlucci says, feared as scandal. The Italian, therefore, loaded up the infant's body on an ash cart, together with a load of refuse, and carted it down to the ash heap below.

The infant's body was tossed over the dock into the ash heap below.

The story got out somehow, and the authorities were notified. A search is now being made for the person who either placed the Infant in the ash heap helow.

It was stated by President Bake into Endough that his bank would lose nothing by the failure as the Chicago Bank had been generally withdrawing its talances recently, and the amount of bushing by the failure as the Chicago Bank had been done with it had never been large.

The Columbia Bank was a comparatively mew inssitution, and was organized with a capital of $1,000,000. Its deposits, at the time of its last statement, amounted to about $1,700,000. Its failure is attributed to the lack of considence in the West, which caused a run on the bank.
